

Cadney Church's Harvest Festival
Sunday 8th October, service is at 2pm

Followed by An auction of Harvest produce and refreshments in the Church Hall

Sarah Fletcher writes:

The combines have been busy in the fields, and it's that time of year to celebrate the British countryside in Autumn with our Harvest Festival! Come along and help us to thank all the workers who have gathered in the harvest at 2.00pm on Sunday 8th October at the Church. This will be followed by our very popular harvest auction in the Church Hall – come along for a cup of tea and cake and pick up some produce.

As ever, we cannot run our auction without your generous donations, so please bring along (or I can collect before the event), any veg, fruit, jam, cakes, flowers or plants that you can spare. If you would like me to collect anything, please give me a call on 07970 180966. Thank you to everyone who has been returning their empty jam jars over last year to be refilled! If anyone has any apple/plum/pear trees that they will not be using the fruit from, could I please come and pick it! Our bakers and jam makers can make some lovely harvest produce to auction!

The team behind the two previous successful Open Gardens events are planning on bringing back the event again in 2018, and of course we will need willing garden owners to be able to put on the event. If you have visited any other Open Gardens events you will know that people like visiting gardens of all shapes and sizes. We have had fantastic feedback at both previous events and would love to make it even bigger and better than before, with all monies raised once again going to local good causes. There is no definite date set yet, but early June is most likely. Please give Linda a call if you would like to take part. 01652 678368
