Howsham park will celebrate its 10th birthday this year. How the years have flown by, from very humble beginnings!

To celebrate and to thank everyone in Cadney and Howsham for their support, there will be a free event in the park on Saturday 15 July 2017. Details are still to be finalised, but will include:

- A film show in the early afternoon for the young ones (primary school age and younger) with hotdogs and popcorn during the interval.
- A film show for the teens (secondary age and above, in the late afternoon.
- A ceilidh, from 7 pm, with Major Kelly's Band in a marquee in the park. Like the other events, this will be free for Cadney and Howsham residents, but places must be booked in advance by calling Wendy on 01652 678713. Wendy will suggest an item you might bring to the 'bring and share' supper we will all be enjoying that evening. Please bring your own drinks.

Duck Race raises over £550

Residents and friends generously sponsored some 250 ducks in this year's event, raising just over £550, to be spent on Howsham Park's 10th Birthday Celebrations on 15 July. The first duck across the finishing line was sponsored by the Patrick family of Howsham, a fine second place went to Cadney's Alice Nadia's duck, and third place was taken in magnificent style by Geoff Platt of Howsham, or by his duck at least. The consolation prize went to Irene Elsom of Howsham. The Park Committee would like to thank everyone who gave of their time or money, or both.
